Guidelines and hygiene standards for food transportation

Valid for the branch Ibbenbüren

AAW003 - Guidelines and hygiene

Version 1.3 | State 23.02.2023

Only food grade trucks / containers are allowed

- Only food grade products are allowed on the truck
- The following products are strictly prohibited (please contact us if you are unsure about any other product)
- Odour intensive products (e.g. chemicals, car tyres, detergents, garlic, spices, plastic granules, etc.)
- Wooden products, except wooden pallets used as load carriers
- Dangerous goods
- Glass / Stones

Overall impression of the truck / container

- Vehicle in good condition
- Free from contamination such as product residue, lubricants, road dirt
- Free of large, accumulated rust spots
- No loss of oil/diesel
- No worn tyres

Truck/container interior

- Free from dirt and product residue
- Free of dust
- Dry
- No mould
- Free of rust
- Free from pests (moths, flies, beetles, etc.)
- Safe to close
- Odourless, no foreign odours such as paint, chemicals, spices, etc.

Ceiling / walls of the truck / container

- Free of dirt
- Free of dust
- Dry, no moisture penetration into tarpaulins, containers, etc. (no cracks)
- No mould growth
- Free of pests (moths, flies, beetles, etc.)
- Free from edges, nails, screws, etc.
- No wooden dividers / transport safety devices (aluminium only)
- Odourless, no foreign odours such as paint, chemicals, spices, etc..

Only if the above guidelines are met will we be able to load our customer's products onto the lorry provided by you. If there are any deviations, the shipper is instructed not to load the goods.

Created: J. Kötters | Verified: S. Künne | Released: L. Dreis